The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, June 24. 1708.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated June 26.

Vienna, June 13.

GENERAL Heiſter is come back hither very unexpectedly, and upon his Arrival had Audience of his Imperial Majeſty. He is forthwith to return to Hungary with new Orders. Count d' Arnau is made Lieutenant-General, and the Government of Great Waradin is given to Count Frederick of Leeuwenbourg, who was ſent for to Court to be employ'd on that Side; but the Malecontents having made an Incurſion into Moravia, 'twas thought convenient to ſend him back thither, and to continue him in the Command of that Province, with a greater Number of Militia; and we hear that upon his Arrival there he defeated a Party of the Enemy. The Affairs of Hamburg being well nigh accommodated, 'twas hop'd that the Daniſh Troops would begin their March hither: But Count d' Ahlfelt, who commanded them, being dead in Bavaria, they wait firſt for Orders from Copenhaguen, to know who ſhall ſucceed that General. This Accident will retard for ſome time the Operations in Hungary, and give time to the Enemy to ſtrengthen themſelves more and more in thoſe Parts.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 26.

Vienna, June 13. We have Advice from Hungary that ſeveral Parties of the Malecontents continue their Irruptions into the Neighbourhood of Presbourg; but a Party of our Huſſars lately defeated one of theirs, killing ſeveral of them and taking 25 Priſoners, whom they have brought to Presbourg, among them are three Enſigns. Another of their Parties was likewiſe defeated near Tirnau by 50 Troopers of the Garriſon of Newſtatel, who kill'd ſeveral on the Spot, took 27 Priſoners, and 48 Horſes.

From the Antw. Cour. and Bruſſ. Gaz. dated June 26.

Vienna, June 12. We have Advice from Altembourg, that on the 6th of this Month a Party of 4 or 500 Malecontents took away many Sheep and Oxen out of the Meadows near that Place; of which the Governor having Advice, ſent out Captain Sheneck, of a Regiment of Hanover, with 350 Horſe, in purſuit of them; but near Wiſſelbourg he fell into an Ambuſh of 4000 of the Enemy, commanded by M. Bezeredi. The Hanoverians defended themſelves bravely for three Hours, but were at length all cut to pieces except 10, who ſav'd themſelves by ſwimming over the Danube, and the Captain and one Soldier, who fought their Way through the Enemy and arriv'd at Altembourg. The Captain receiv'd 18 Wounds, ſeveral of which are dangerous. In this ſharp Action the Malecontents had above 400 Men kill'd or dangerouſly wounded.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 28.

Vienna, June 16. The Deputies of the Proteſtant Towns of Hungary are return'd to Presburg, having receiv'd for Anſwer, that the Emperour would take time to conſider of their Demands. General Heiſter is come agen hither; the Deſign he had to have fallen on the Malecontents miſcarry'd, they having retreated time enough to prevent him. At Erlau, where Prince Ragotski held a Diet, but few Deputies appear'd, moſt of them being inclin'd to Peace. General Kucklander got ſafe by the Enemy's Fort at Carava, though they fir'd their Cannon upon him; but 'tis ſaid, that General Kriechbaum, who was going to command in Tranſylvania, is fallen into the Hands of a Detachment of the Malecontents, together with all his Domeſticks, Plate, and Money he had with him; but we give not intire credit to this Report. The Imperialiſts having on the 11th of this Month abandon'd Schalitz in Moravia, the Malecontents immediately put a Garriſon of 8 Companies into the Town, and their General Oskay threatens to make another Irruption with 2000 Men, farther into that Country.

From the Leid. and Amſt. Gaz. dated June 29.

Vienna, June 16. We have nothing new from Hungary, but that Prince Ragotski is ſtill at Erlau, where he has held a Diet, and omitted nothing to keep up the Hearts of his Party, putting them in Hopes that France would ſupply him with Money, and that the Ottoman Porte would at length be prevail'd upon to engage in a War againſt the Emperour; but the Grand Signior having of late given freſh Aſſurances to his Imperial Majeſty of the contrary, 'tis very viſible that theſe Pretexts are made uſe of only to amuſe the Malecontents, and incline them to continue the War. Count Caraffa arriv'd Yeſterday poſt from Milan with the welcome News that the Grand Fleet of the Allies, commanded by Admiral Leake, and conſiſting of 22 Men of War, 8 Fregates, 4 Fire-ſhips, 4 Bomb-Veſſels and 50 Tranſport-Ships, all Engliſh, and of 11 Men of War, 2 Fire-Ships and 2 Bomb-Veſſels, Dutch, were arriv'd at Genoa; and that in their Way they had taken and brought into Barcelona 90 French Tarrans, laden with Ammunition and Proviſions for the Army of the Duke of Orleans. Count Altheim, who is now at Dreſden, is to renew there the Treaty for the 3000 Saxon Horſe, which are deſir'd of King Auguſtus, to be employ'd on the Upper Rhine.

Leipſich, June 20. King Auguſtus went from Dreſden on Friday laſt, to view the Mines of Silver, Lead, &c. which are in the Mountains of this Electorate, and that are at preſent in a very good Condition. Count Altheim arriv'd lately at Dreſden to execute ſome Commiſſion from the Emperour, and has Orders to continue there till his Majeſty returns. Some Advices from Hungary ſay, that the Malecontents had reſolv'd to hold another general Diet at Erlau, where they intended to debate about chuſing the Elector of Bavaria for their King.

Nuremberg, June 22. 'Tis yet uncertain when the Troops of Denmark will march out of Bavaria for Hungary, and 'tis much apprehended that the Malecontents of that Kingdom will endeavour to Conquer the Moravia, that they may penetrate by that Country into Bavaria, in order to re-eſtabliſh the Elector of that Name.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 30.

Vienna, June 16. The Baron of Neydhaart, Preſident of the Imperial Treaſury Chamber at Breſlau, has by Order from Court ſent an Account of the Expences occaſion'd by the Swedes in Sileſia, by which it appears that they amounted to 956000 Florins. An Agreement is made with the Queen of Great Britain, and with the States of Holland, that 2 Imperial Regiments more, that is to ſay, the Regiment of the Biſhop of Oſnabrug, and that of Veldt-Marſhal Staremberg, ſhall be ſent from Italy to Catalonia, on Condition that the Emperor be paid 40 Florins a Man for the raiſing 2 other Regiments in their Room. And to the End theſe new Regiments may not wholly be compos'd of raw Men, 'tis agreed that the other Regiments ſhall give ſome of their Men to the Officers of theſe new ones, provided they allow them 40 Florins for each Man ſo given them. Each of theſe Regiments is to conſiſt of 16 Companies, and each Company of 140 private Men.
